

Nicole W. Biggart (2000):

Social Organization and Economic Development

„markets are not all alike“

Assumptions about economies

(1) Economic action is social action

(2) Economic action becomes embedded in conventions and institutions

(3) Economies are organized

(4) The organization of economies makes a difference in economic succes in the global marketplace

Nicole W. Biggart (2000):

Social Organization and Economic Development

„markets are not all alike“

Assumptions about economies

- (1) Economic action is social action
- (2) Economic action becomes embedded in conventions and institutions
- (3) Economies are organized
- (4) The organization of economies makes a difference in economic success in the global marketplace